

WHAT'S IT ALL ABOUT?

New Horizon Vocational Center is a training program for people of all ages, all disabilities, held at Center for Independence. It is foremost a community of people who work together toward a common goal of gaining work skills.

*"As the sun rises, new beginnings arrive for people with disabilities."

Our Philosophy

Our goal is to empower people with disabilities of all kinds, to build confidence and self-esteem, to promote skills that translate into independent living, independent employment, and to support one another in that journey.

Within the program people with disabilities are given the opportunity to build relationships, foster education and vocational skills, and to access services and support needed to sustain life and employment.

Participants of New Horizon Vocational Center are called “Members” rather than clients or consumers. This implies ownership, dignity and responsibility. Without members the Vocational Center cannot exist. To have membership in an organization means to belong, to fit in, to have a place, and to be needed. Often people with disabilities feel outside the community. Here at New Horizon they are the community. We strive to extend that feeling of belonging to society at large.

New Horizon Vocational Center (NHVC) Members will find opportunities in the following areas:

- Computer Skills
- Janitorial Services
- Restaurant services such as menu planning, budgeting, shopping, cooking, serving, safe food handling, etc.
- Interpersonal skills
- Resume writing, application completion, and interviewing skills
- Community volunteering
- Fundraising
- Outreach
- Transit Training
- Recreation
- Home-Based Employment
